STATE OF NEW YORK:
COUNTY OF QUEENS :

BEFORE ME, the undersigned Notary Public, personally appeared Leonard Joseph Campanello, who currently resides at 76 Anndom Court, North Babylon, New York 11703, in the county of Suffolk and makes this statement and affidavit upon oath and affirmation of belief and personal knowledge that the matters and facts set forth herein are true and correct to the best of his knowledge:

I, Leonard Joseph Campanello, registered in person at a voter registration event at my high school to vote for the first time in New York State in the Spring of 2009. I received confirmation of my registration as Democrat in 2009.

In December of 2013 I misplaced my drivers license which I arranged to be reissued on January 2, 2014. This remains to be the most recent interaction that I have had with the New York State DMV.

I checked my registration online around March 25, 2016 and observed that my party affiliation indicated 'Republican'. I had never registered as a Republican.

Via a phone conversation with the Suffolk County board of elections, I was notified that a signed "change of party affiliation" had been filled out on my behalf that switched me from Democrat to Republican. On this call, the BOE representative observed that, "Yes," I did first register in 2009 and, "Yes," I had registered as a Democrat. But she had in front of her a copy of the "change of party affiliation" form which she electronically forwarded to me that, did indeed, bear my signature.

In fact, however, the signature on that form is an identical, pixel-by-pixel copy of the electronic signature on every one of my driver's licenses or permits issued to me since 2007 that was clearly electronically transferred to the "change of party affiliation" form.

Please refer to the attached copies of my 3 current and expired driver's licenses for comparison to the signature on the photocopy of the New York State Voter Registration Application form.

In any event, given the late date of my discussion with the BOE and the apparent 'facts' on file, I am unable to vote in the New York Democratic Primary on April 19, 2016.

I would like my altered voter registration to be corrected but have not been able to achieve that feat.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of New York that the foregoing is true and correct.

Dear Voter,

With Democratic and Republican Primaries for President being held in New York on April 19th, we are writing to remind voters of eligibility requirements, which are governed by State Law. We are writing to you specifically because you have recently changed your party enrollment to Democratic, perhaps with the intention on voting in the April 19th Presidential Primary.

As you may know, New York is one of 11 States to have a "closed" primary, where only previously registered members of Parties can vote. As such, in accordance with NYS Election Law §5-304, an existing voter would have had to have changed his or her party registration no later than October 9th, 2015 in order to vote in any of the 2016 Party Primaries. Since you submitted your change of enrollment form on 10/13/2015, a date after the legal deadline, your enrollment in Democratic party will become effective seven (7) days after General Election Day, 2016.

Thus, we regret to notify you that you are not eligible to vote in the April 19th Presidential Primary for the Democratic Party. However, if you choose to, you can still vote in the Republican Party Primary.

There are several ways Suffolk County Voters can verify in which party, if any, they are registered. You can look it up online at <https://voterlookup.elections.state.ny.us/> or call the Suffolk County Board of Elections at 631.852.4500 – we are here to help.

I, David Morrison, purposely changed my party affiliation as a voter in New York State on October 8, 2015.

I called the Board of Elections on October 8, 2015 and asked how to update my information and change my party affiliation. I was told they could handle it over the phone. I have proof of the call. I changed my party affiliation to Democrat.

The Board of Elections mailed an absentee ballot to my new address. I have a handwritten envelope dated October 8, 2015.

I checked my voter registration online on March 27, 2016 and discovered that my party affiliation was: unchanged.

I called the Board of Elections again and was told to go to the Post Office - a different response than I received on the October 8, 2015 call. I got my registration mailed before the deadline, checked my registration again, and had a new address but no party affiliation.

I, Ashley Peacock, registered to vote in New York State for the first time online, on March 23, 2016.

My party registration was as a Democrat.

I received confirmation from the NYSDMV that my registration was sent to the Board of Elections. I was given a confirmation number as well as the date and time that it was processed. On April 13, 2016 I called the Board of Elections to confirm my registration; they couldn't find me in the system and suggested that I call the DMV. I called the DMV and spoke with a gentleman named Thomas, who was unable to get any information because "the systems were down." I was put on hold for a very long time; when someone else answered the phone, they said they could not hear me on the other line and then hung up. I then contacted the NY State Board of Elections Division of Election Law Enforcement and was assigned to a man named Patrick, who has yet to get back to me with information about why my registration was not processed.

I would like my voter registration to be corrected but have not yet been able to accomplish that.

Thanks for signing up -- and welcome to the Democratic Party!

We're relying on supporters like you to help Democrats take back Congress and keep Republicans away from the White House.

Here are three quick, easy things you can do right now to help elect Democrats:

1. Spread the word. Let your friends know that you've committed to electing Democrats, and ask them to join you! Share on Facebook or tweet that you're in.
2. Make a donation. We rely on supporters like you to make sure that our candidates have the resources they need to win. Your donation of $10 or more today will support Democrats who are fighting for our values at every level:
<https://my.democrats.org/Invest-in-Democrats>
3. Become a Factivist. Help get out the facts about Republican candidates and their disastrous policies. Sign up to become a Factivist today, and we'll make sure you get the latest information to share with your friends and neighbors.

Thanks for staying involved,

BEFORE ME, the undersigned Notary Public, personally appeared Emily Braunstein, who currently resides at 2028 East 55th Street, Brooklyn NY 11234, in the county of Kings and makes this statement and affidavit upon oath and affirmation of belief and personal knowledge that the matters and facts set forth herein are true and correct to the best of her knowledge:

I, Emily Braunstein, registered by mail as a voter in New York State on January 1, 2012.

I registered as a Democrat.

I called the Board of Elections to confirm.

I checked my voter registration online on April 7, 2016 and discovered that my party affiliation had been changed to: no longer affiliated with a party (independent).

I called the Board of Elections to tell them that I was a Democrat but for some reason I was removed. They said they can't help me.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of New York that the foregoing is true and correct.

I, Christopher William Britten, registered on-line at the DMV site to vote for the first time in New York State on March 17, 2016.

My party registration was as a Democrat.

I received email confirmation of my registration (and a confirmation number).

I checked my voter registration online on April 14, 2016 and discovered that my party affiliation had been changed to: not registered.

I tried to re-register 4/14/2016 and still says not registered.

I, Lisa A, Beattie, am a registered voter in New York State. I registered on September 1, 1989 through the New York State Department of Motor Vehicles when I received my drivers' license.

I registered as a Democrat.

I usually receive a yellow card before any election (both general and primary elections) with my correct name, address, party affiliation, and polling place.

I checked my voter registration online on April 11, 2016 and discovered that my registration status was: not registered.

On April 11, 2016 I called the Onondaga County Board of Elections and also the New York State Board of Elections. Somehow my info was "merged " or removed and changed to a different last name "Davidson" and her address. I was told it happened because I and another Lisa reside in the same county and share the same first name and same birth date. They fixed it in the computer, but since the polling books are already printed, I have to vote using an affidavit ballot.

I would like my altered voter registration to be corrected but have not yet been able to accomplish that.

I, Rebecca Peebles, registered with the DMV to vote for the first time in New York State on April 14, 2003.

My party registration was as a Democrat.

I received confirmation of my registration by mail.

I checked my voter registration online on March 24, 2016 and discovered that my party affiliation had been changed to: No longer affiliated with a party (independent).

There were many warnings being posted online about voter registrations and I almost didn't check because I've always been a registered Democrat. Good thing I checked, but it was the end of the day Thursday, March 24. First thing on Friday morning, March 25th, I contacted the local Board of Elections in NYC. I spoke with a gentleman who said he "saw the problem" and he corrected it for me. I found it interesting that even though the deadline for changing party affiliation was way back in October that I had little difficulty correcting it. My registration was still under my maiden name (I married in 2013) and he also advised me to print a voter registration form, mail it THAT day so it would postmark in time to get the name change, and he made sure to tell me to check Democratic party on that form. I did what he suggested and mailed it March 25th with a tracking number to ensure delivery. I then double checked my registration online that same day and it was still coming up "Independence" party. This time I called the BOE in Albany to check it for me as well. She assured me I was coming up a registered Democrat. I check often and will until I vote Tuesday as I keep hearing of registration problems happening here in NY.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of New York that the foregoing is true and correct.
